COURSE DESCRIPTION

Advanced ESL speakers receive guidance and extensive practice in refining oral production and listening skills. Listening focuses on discrimination of sounds in English and on comprehension of connected spoken discourse. Oral production focuses on increasing control of the English sound system. The course emphasis is on overall pronunciation improvement so as to minimize miscommunication or misperception due to foreign accent. The emphasis is on clear speech. Students view, learn and practice with male and female models from North America (U.S. and Canada) who speak with a General American accent. PREREQUISITE: Qualifying score on ESL Placement Test, successful completion of ESL 960LS or equivalent.
